

Oku-Tama Mukashi-Michi

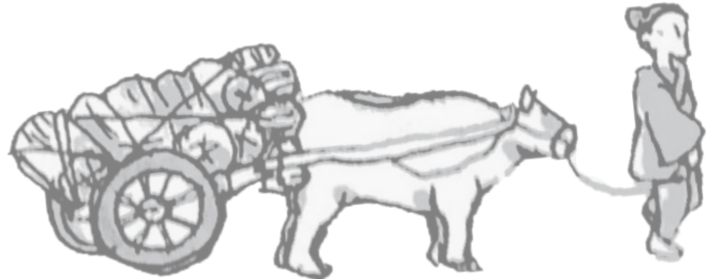

Approx. 9 km
(5.6 mile)

Approx. 4 hours by walk
(one-way)

Oku-Tama Mukashi-Michi is a road with historical background from Hikawa area (around Oku-Tama station) to Ogochi-Dam.
A country road continuing today for living days where people were walking with foods, goods etc. together with horses, bulls in old days. Also, some monuments made by stone like towers, small shrine etc. are watchable and old trace of train track made for building Ogochi-Dam is remaining along the road.
Let's enjoy "Past days" and "Today" of Oku-Tama Mukashi-Michi.

✓ The back face is also available. This face covers from Hikawa to Sougaku valley, it is about half of all way.

Fudo-no-Uetaki Fall

Shirahige-Jinja Shrine

Big rocks over the Shrine are divine body

Mimigami-Sama

Preying spot for recovering ear sickness

Narita-Fudosen of Sougaku Shrine

A lot of neighbors believe the effect.

to be continued
to the back face

Sougaku Tunnel

Sougaku Bus stop

Umekubo Bus stop

Sougaku Valley

Umekubo Tunnel

Benkei-no-Udemuki-Iwa

A rock with a hole which said Benkei made the hole by his own arm.
Ben-kei is a historical antual kind of "Samurai", They say the power was very strong.

Big Acer Tree "Iroha-Kaede" around 200 years old!!

Trace of train truck

All materials for building the Dam are carried by this truck.

Saikachi-Gi

A big tree which is to be origin of the area name.

Zooming up map

Note: At the signpost No. 7 point, passing with no looking for the forward (passing to keep looking for your legs), you cannot find the signpost then go straight. Check the signpost, then go to Oku-Tama ko lake direction.

Town Hall

to Nippara
Syo-Nyu-Do cave

Oku-Tama Visitor Center

Entrance Hikawa

Haguro-Saka

(Steep slope)
Hard for houses also human.

Haguro-Mita Shrine

Oku-Hikawa Shrine

Huge 3 Cedar tree is it's mark.

Atago Shrine

Mt. Atago
(alt. 507m)

- 1 : Sighpost
- 2 : Toilet
- 3 : Bus stop
- 4 : Police box
- Bold Line : Historical monument
- : Mukachi-Michi
- : National Route
- : Tama-Gawa river
- : Forest road

Fig. Signpost
(Actual one of 1 2 on the map)

Oku-Tama Mukashi-Michi

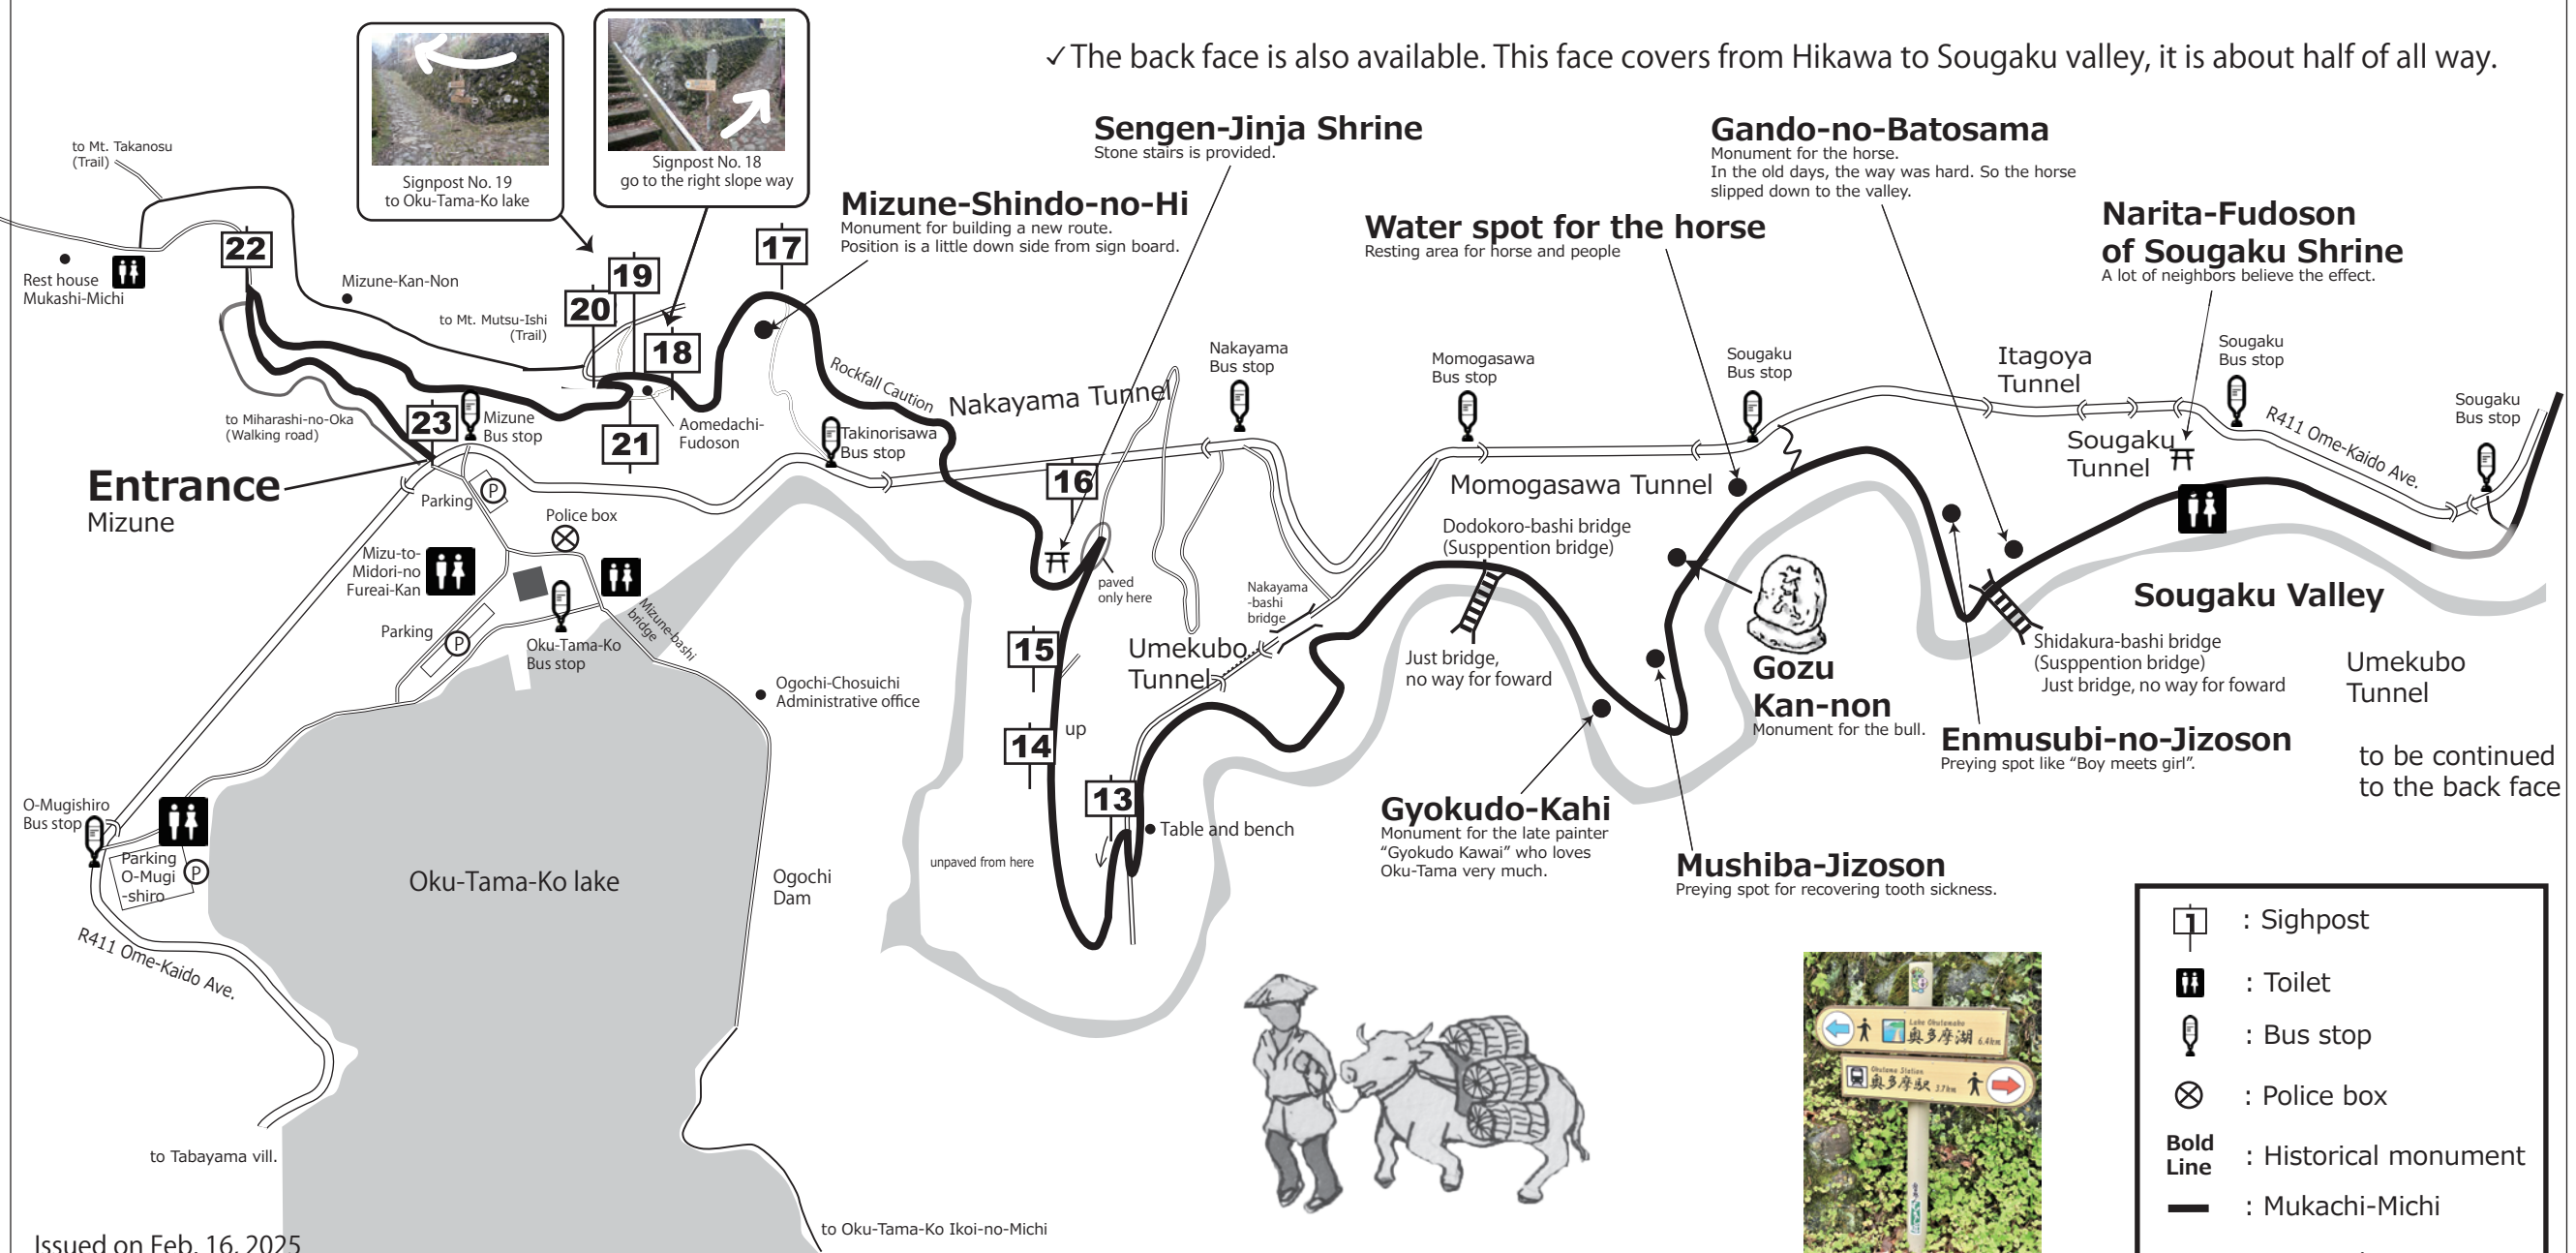

Approx. 9 km
(5.6 mile)

Approx. 4 hours by walk
(one-way)

For walking, take care below.

- Oku-Tama has no trash box. Your trash should be went back with you.
- No picking animals/botanicals.
- Use public facility i. e., Toilet clean.
- On the way along the villege, no annoying on neighbors.

✓ The back face is also available. This face covers from Hikawa to Sougaku valley, it is about half of all way.

Issued on Feb. 16, 2025

Tokyo Met.
Oku-Tama Visitor Center

Telephone: +81-428-83-2037

Address: 171-1 Hikawa, Okutama T., Nishitama Co., Tokyo 198-0212

Open: 9:00 - 16:30

Close: Monday (It will be open on the next day if Monday is holiday),
Year end/start period

URL: <https://www.ces-net.jp/okutamavc/>

Actual management by CES (Shizen Kyoiku Kenkyu Center corp.)

(Go to the web page in Japanese)

Fig. Signpost

(Actual one of
1 2 on the map)

- : Signpost
- : Toilet
- : Bus stop
- : Police box
- Bold Line : Historical monument
- : Mukashi-Michi
- : National Route
- : Tama-Gawa river
- : Forest road